

Family Referral>>>>

Could YOU, or someone you know:

- Benefit from extra support during a crisis or difficult time?
- Welcome new parenting strategies/techniques?
- Improve financially with budget and resource referrals?

Client Referral:

If you would like to refer yourself or another family to CAPS, please provide the following information:

Adult's Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone #: (____) _____

County: _____

Referring Agency/School: _____

Contact Person at Agency/School: _____

Contact Phone #: (____) _____

Special Considerations:

- Spanish-speaking Only
- Parenting
- Problems in School
- Children under 5 years of age (#: ____)

Reason for Referral: _____

New Hope Services— A Community Asset>>>

In 1958, a local group of Clark County concerned parents of children with special needs created an organization that is today called New Hope Services, Inc., based in Jeffersonville, Indiana. For 50 years, this not-for-profit agency has evolved and expanded to touch the lives of more than 8,000 people annually. Satisfying the human services needs of people throughout Southern Indiana, New Hope's consumers include children, special-needs children, adults with mental retardation or disadvantages, families, and senior adults.

Specific services and programs include:

- Adult Services
- Child Advocacy and Parental Support
- Childcare
- Employment Services
- Home-Based Therapy
- Senior Centers
- Supported Living
- Healthy Families
- Respite Care
- WIC (Women, Infants and Children)
- Children's Residential Program
- CHINS Support Group
- Family Preservation
- Job Training Centers
- Connections

Collectively, New Hope maintains facilities in seven locations:

- New Hope Center—Jeffersonville
- Kids Place—Scottsburg
- Futures—Austin
- New Hope Commons—Jeffersonville
- New To You Thrift Store—Clarksville
- New To You Thrift Store—Charlestown
- Park Place—Jeffersonville

Child Advocacy and Parental Support

In Indiana Serving Clark,
Floyd, Harrison, Scott, and
Washington Counties

Phone: 812-288-4304
Toll-free: 1-800-237-6604
Fax: 812-284-5335

Child Advocacy and Parental Support Services

- Do you need referrals to community resources for basic needs—food, clothing, housing, or health care?
- Are you stressed out, frustrated, and experiencing conflicts with family and others?
- Are you dealing with difficult child behaviors?

Call 812-288-4304.

Serving Southern Indiana>>>

CAPS >>>

New Hope Services, Inc is the recipient of a Community Partners for Child Safety grant from the state of Indiana. New Hope utilizes this grant to provide the Child Advocacy and Parental Support (CAPS) program. This program and Washington counties.

assists families who need access to community resources and parenting education in Clark, Floyd, Harrison, Scott,

CAPS provides home-based, goal oriented case management to address:

- Activities of Daily Living (such as home organization and hygiene)
- Education Concerns
- Emergency Assistance
- Financial/Resource Budgeting
- Parenting and Family Communication
- Resource Referrals for (but not limited to)
 - Child Care
 - Dental Vision, Hearing
 - Domestic Violence Services
 - Employment
 - Utility Assistance
 - Housing
 - Legal Aid Resourcing
 - Physical and Mental Health Care
 - Substance Abuse Services
 - Transportation Options
 - Food and Nutrition

For more information on New Hope Services and the CAPS program, please visit us online at:

www.newhopeservices.org,

Or contact us by phone, mail, or fax at:

Child Advocacy and Parental Support

New Hope Commons

1302 Wall Street

Jeffersonville, IN 47130

Phone: (812) 288-4304

